

Finite Representability of Discrete-time Switched Linear Systems

Zhendong Sun¹, Miaomiao Wang²

1. College of Automation, Shandong University of Science & Technology
 2. Academy of Math. & System Science, Chinese Academy of Sciences
- In this work, the finite representation problem was addressed for a class of discrete-time switched linear control systems with decoupled controllable/uncontrollable states.
 - We showed that, the problem is solvable when the uncontrollable submode is finite representable.
 - Constructive design procedures were developed in the proof of the main result.